Edgewood's Annual Chef's Night Out Set to Sizzle

ST. LOUIS, MO (April 8, 2010) – The Club Managers Association of America-St. Louis Chapter will host the 15th annual Chefs' Night Out to benefit Edgewood Children's Center on Monday, April 19, 2010, at 6:30 p.m. at Meadowbrook Country Club in Ballwin.

April is National Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention Awareness Month, and Chefs' Night Out provides an excellent opportunity to support crucial prevention efforts in St. Louis. The event will showcase the talents of some of St. Louis' finest private clubs and commercial chefs, aiming to raise funding for the programs at Edgewood. The evening includes wine and dinner prepared by approximately 25 of St. Louis' top chefs and a silent and live auction presenting a spectacular array of unique items.

Tickets are $150 per person or $1,400 for a table of 10 and can be purchased at www.eccstl.org. For more information, please contact Jessica Goodhart at (314) 968-2060 or Jessica.Goodhart@great-circle.org.

About Great Circle<sup>SM</sup> & Edgewood Children's Center

Established as a result of the merger of Boys & Girls Town of Missouri and Edgewood Children's Center, Great Circle<sup>SM</sup> provides treatment, education, prevention and support services to children with a history of abuse and neglect, children with emotional and behavioral disorders and children with autism. Great Circle's mission to "reshape vulnerable lives through a community of partners, teachers and leaders, giving children and families the confidence to create bright futures" is fulfilled through campuses in St. Louis, Columbia, Springfield and St. James, Missouri. As one of the children's non-for-profit services in Missouri, the organization annually touches the lives of more than 9,600 children and family members and employs more than 700 staff members.
